Location

Stichill is a pretty Borders village lying in countryside noted for its scenic beauty and fantastic opportunities for walking, cycling, horse riding, fishing and many other country pursuits. The location of the village allows for a fairly straightforward commute to the outskirts of Edinburgh (around 50 minutes), easy access to Kelso and a good road network to the other main Borders towns. The Borders Rail link with Edinburgh terminates at Tweedbank which is within comfortable driving distance. Primary schooling is available in Ednam as well as Kelso. Secondary schooling is in Kelso where a new high school has recently been built. Kelso is one of the most popular towns in the Scottish Borders and has a good selection of local shops, Sainsbury's supermarket and an excellent range of social and sporting facilities including a race course, ice rink, swimming pool, bowling club and golf course. The town sits at the confluence of the Rivers Tweed and Teviot and is noted for its fishing, large Flemish-style market square, and the remains of one of the great Border Abbeys.
