112/2 High Street, Galashiels, TD1 1SQ

Fixed Price £83,000

112/2 High Street is a beautifully presented first floor apartment enjoying a lovely corner position with open aspect over the surrounding area. It is well positioned for most local with amenities with the transport interchange just a short distance on foot. Accessed via a secure entrance and sharing a hallway with two other properties, this lovely property is very generous in layout and has been completely refurbished in recent times ensuring it is truly ready to move into. Of particular note is the lounge which has three feature windows which flood the room with natural light, whilst the modern kitchen is amply large enough for dining, the double bedroom is very generously proportioned with space for good range of furniture, and the property is nicely finished with a contemporary shower room. The furniture within the property can be included making this an ideal starter property or ready to go investment opportunity.
