Cleveland Cottage, Main Street

Maxton, TD6 0RL

Guide Price £200,000

Cleveland Cottage is an attractive end terraced property which sits in the heart of the small village of Maxton, enjoying a peaceful setting, well positioned for travel to routes outwith with the village. With the original dwelling believed to be dating back to the early 1700's, the property boasts a very comfortably proportioned layout, featuring a generous lounge with wood burning stove, a well equipped kitchen, two particularly spacious double bedrooms and a well appointed bathroom. It is presented onto the market in good order; providing an easily maintained property which is ready to move into, yet still has scope to improve to ones own taste if desired. Of particular note is the large enclosed garden to the rear which is ideal for children and/or pets and provides a lovely spot to relax. There is also ample parking on street outside the property.

Location

Maxton is a small village which lies on the St Cuthbert's Way, 1.5 miles off the A68, one of the major trunk routes into the Borders, giving easy access both north and south bound. Facilities are provided in the nearby conservation village of St Boswells, where there can also be found a good variety of social and sporting activities including a cricket pitch, tennis courts and a picturesque golf course running alongside the River Tweed. Many of the major employers within the region are close at hand, for example the Borders General Hospital near Melrose, the Scottish Borders Council HQ at Newtown St Boswells, and the pensions agency at Tweedbank. Principal towns such as Kelso and Galashiels both just a 15 minute drive away whilst the railway terminus at Tweedbank can be reached in around 10 minutes.
